THE SUBSCRIBERS

Offer on Leases of Ten Years from the first of April, 1815, the following

PROPERTY IN PITTSBURGH.

No. 1. THE Ferry Lot on the corner of Wood, Water, and Front streets. It contains 60 feet on Water street, on which are a valuable two story brick house and a three story frame one, weather-boarded and painted, and is a capital stand for a Store. The Ferry is allowed to be the best one on the Monongahela, and the situation of the property generally admirably calculated for the river trade, as it affords the easiest and most convenient communication; its length is 160 feet on Wood street, and is directly opposite Mr. T. Cromwell's warehouse, a number of shops are erected thereon, and on Front street it contains 60 feet, the corner occupied by Mr. Samuel Smith as a store, and is a well known stand. The real advantages of the Ferry are so well known as to need no comment. It is occupied by Mr. W. Graham.

2. The House and Lot on Water and Front street, with a front of 60 feet on each, by 160 feet deep, a few doors above Wood street, now occupied by Mr. Le Lacheur.

3. A Lot on Penn street, next to the valuable improvements of Mr. Abner Barker. It borders on the Allegheny river, and would be valuable for a boat-yard, as it is 60 feet front by more than 400 deep.

As several applications have already been made to the subscribers for this property, they now give public notice that any person disposed to lease may know their terms by applying to either of them residing in Yorktown Penn.

TO THE EDITOR.

SIR—The inclosed is a description in part, and correct as far as it goes, of one of the most celebrated SLEEP-TALKERS which has appeared upon the foot-stool for two thousand years. Please publish it: it may give occasion for the display of much sceptical ingenuity.—Very truly yours, ALFIERI.

WONDERFUL PHENOMENON!

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in the Western District to his friend in this city, dated March 20, 1814.

DEAR WILLIAM—I went last evening with our friends S. & H. to hear the famous female somniloquist, or sleep-talker, of whom I said something in my last. We went at an early hour, that we might have an opportunity of conversing with her while waking, and of laying in stores for scepticism!—She is a plump, hale country lass of nineteen, rather above the middle size; of a smooth, equal, vacant tranquility of visage, without mental vivacity or rigor. You would pronounce her eye to be good; but it is unsteady, wild and capricious, with an unusual, if you please, say sickly, dilation of the pupil. She is taciturn and diffident, with a heavy, languid drawl of utterance, which pains you.

Our conversation was of a critical cast—ran mostly upon facts relating to herself; her parentage, nativity, age education, health, accidence, religion, &c. and the amazing unconscious faculty of talking in her sleep. She followed all our questions in a regular pace—she anticipated nothing—but on the last head spoke with reluctance, and in a manner which betrayed a deep sensibility of her misfortune. It was not a reluctance called in to resist our incivility; it was female delicacy, busying in secreting a deformity.

She informed us that she had been in this way about two years, and was not sensible of any bodily disorder which could occasion it. She is of the Baptist sect, and for many years has been a zealous and fervent devotee, and when sleeping, her mind, taking the pious tendency of her waking hours, appears to be wholly occupied with subjects of religion.

On this head she appears to be intuitively prepared to meet questions the most dark and abstruse. She answers with promptness, with multifarious remark, right onward, without repetition, to a total exhaustion of her subject, and not unfrequently of herself. These facts, the people with whom she lived, & who had been acquainted with her from her infancy, united in confirming. The object of our visit being attained, and our curiosity more strongly excited, we retired to a neighbor's for an hour, and returned to full gratification. She had been in bed some time, and in a few moments we heard her commence, the doors was thrown open, and we all entered. It was a stormy inclement night, and 30 or 40 auditors only attended, it was not uncommon, we were informed, for 3 or 400 to be present.

She opened with a prayer of half an hour, and delivered herself with great distinctness, in a clear, harmonious, unhesitating animated tone of voice, with much devotional zeal and attracting fervour; when through, she sighed and groaned as in bodily anguish, for 10 or 12 minutes, her chest hove, she grated her teeth and catched her breath, as one does with a palpitation of the heart.

At a proper interval, some one who belonged to the house, calling her mildly by her name, observed that elder somebody, his name I forget, had come some distance to see her. On this, she labored a moment as for breath, when she commenced and went through with, a most elegant exhortation, addressed to him personally, on the subject of his duties, urging him to diligence, assiduity and perseverance in his calling, painting in colours of delicious extacy, the pleasures of the life to come, for the life well spent; and denouncing in awful solemnity, with the shuddering terrors of eternal damnation, the sentinel who slumbered or winked upon the watchtower, interlarding her discourse with many pertinent scriptural allusions, and in a copiousness of language, which indeed very much astonished us. The elder in the mean time,

"——— pale, amazed,
"All gaze, all wonder ——,"

Eying, in tremulous meakness, the oracular corpse which lay before him, in deep, dead sleep, interwove the sentiments which dropt from it, with the awful mysteries of a preternatural—"Saul, Saul! why persecutest thou me?"—and wept in silent obsequiousness. In fact, the deep attention of the auditors; the sighs of the women; the pattering of the hail; the howling of the tempest; united with the speaking corpse, as it appeared, uttering its awful warnings to mortality, offered one of those moments of retirement to the soul, when we shudder and shiver in sublimity, like a culprit at Rome, with his heels to the precipice; indeed, I was ten times within an ace of coiling up my logic and uniting in the sympathies of the crowd.

Having finished her address to the elder, she relapsed again into convulsions which she had in her first interval, but visibly in greater pain; it was the contortion of an Incubus: it was the last conscious grasp of life to its fixture; she was as colourless as dead!

This unexpected and frightful debility of the young lady excited our curiosity, and gave rise to a conversation with the lady of the house on the subject. She told us that 3 nights before, the company had so multiplied questions upon her that she was driven to a state of alarming exhaustion, and whenever this happened, it required 6, 8 and sometimes 10 days of kind attention, to recruit her. We were sorry for this information, as we were obliged to give over asking her many questions with which we had come prepared. The company on this information immediately broke up and we retired.

Now, friend William, what do you think of all this? Get along as soon as possible with all your doubts; take it as a fact that it is no imposture, no delusion—and then let me hear from you. B.

BOSTON, MAY 2.

FROM CANADA.

We have been politely favored with a Montreal paper of April 16, 1814, containing the following British general order:—

CONVENTION FOR THE EXCHANGE OF PRISONERS.

HEAD QUARTERS, MONTREAL, Adjutant General's Office, April 16, 1814.

GENERAL ORDER.

His Excellency the Governor in Chief and Commander of the Forces, announces to the troops under his command, that he was pleased to sanction and confirm, on the 15th inst. articles of a convention entered into by col. Baynes, Adj. Gen. to the forces, and brig. gen. Winder, of the army of the U. S. for the mutual release of all prisoners of war, hostages, or others, with the exception of the 46 American officers and non-commissioned officers placed in close confinement, as hostages, in conformity to the general order of the 27th Oct. last, in retaliation for 23 British born subjects taken from the ranks of the enemy, and sent to England for legal trial By this agreement it is stipulated: That all prisoners of war, (the above mentioned alone excepted) shall be mutually exchanged, and delivered at such places as shall be agreed on, with all expedition; and shall be declared respectively, all and severally, to be released, and free to carry arms, and serve, on the 15th of May next, the same as if they had never been prisoners of war: And it has been further provided, That whatever balance shall appear on the returns of prisoners of war, respectivelly exchanged or given upon parole, by either party, since the commencement of hostilities, that the number of prisoners for which an equivalent has not been returned, shall be withheld from all military service, until duly exchanged.

It is with a proud satisfaction that the Commander of the Forces feels confident, that this provisional clause can never apply to the army in Canada, from the immense disparity in the number and rank of the prisoners it has restored to the enemy.

All Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Soldiers, being prisoners of war, who are not prevented in consequence of their wounds, are commanded to join their respective corps and stations on the 15th May next, and to resume military duties.

EDWARD BAYNES,
ADJUTANT GENERAL BRITISH N'TH AMERICA.

COMMODORE BARCLAY.

A public dinner and ball, was given to Com. Barclay, at Terrebonne, (Canada,) on the 29th inst. Among the voluntary Toasts, this gallant but unfortunate officer gave,

Boston, May 5.

A Bermuda paper was received in town yesterday, containing accounts from England, to the 27th of Feb. Among its most important contents is the summary of a British official bulletin of the late war operations in France. In noticing this document and the other accounts from the continent, the editor remarks, "that although the French gained some important advantages in the actions detailed in the official bulletin, still the computation of loss on the part of the allies was greatly less than has been reported; that the main body of the Prince Schwartzenburgh were not present in these brief actions; and that to the divisions who were, Bonaparte opposed with dreadful fury his whole force. It is also stated, that Winzingerode had taken Soissons by storm, and occasioned a loss to the enemy of 10,000 men; and that he afterwards joined Gen. Blucher, that the Swedish, Danish, Prussian, Saxon, Russian, Brunswick and English troops were all in rapid march towards France, meeting no opposition on their way; that on the 13th Feb. a Scotch regiment reached Almelo; on the same day Count Woronzow arrived at Liege; on the 15th Gen. Von Bulow quitted Brussels, and on the 25th the Crown Prince was to be in old France.

Ancona is stated to be given up to the allies.

The negociations continue at Chatillon; and the hopes of peace are strong.

Not a word is said in the London accounts, respecting American affairs.

NEW-YORK, May 6.

Highly interesting intelligence.

A letter, dated at New London, the 4th inst. at 10 o'clock, P. M. brought by express, was received this morning, by a respectable Mercantile House in this City, with intelligence of the following purport:

The Bulwark, of 74 guns, with despatches from Bermuda, had just arrived off N. London. A gentleman had been landed from a Swedish brig then in possession of the squadron, who states, that all the American coast, from N. Orleans to Eastport, had been declared in a state of strict blockade; and that the squadron had received orders to sink, burn and destroy every vessel they could find along the whole coast.

The gentleman also states, that an armistice between Bonaparte and the Allies was signed on the 5th of March; and a general peace in Europe, it was expected, would follow.

The letter mentions likewise, that there is no news favorable to the United States.

A very large additional force, it is said, was preparing in England, early in the Spring, for America.

[Commerc. Adv.

The crew of the frigate Macedonian, sailed yesterday for Albany, on their way to the lakes. These hearty tars took leave of the navy yard in the most cheerful manner. The presence of Com. Rodgers, at their departure, occasioned some additional air-rending huzzas.

From SACKETT'S HARBOR.

Extract of a letter dated,
"Sackett's Harbor, April 25.

"The most lively emotions of joy were this day manifested by the troops and citizens of this place, on learning the arrival of that excellent officer, maj. general Brown. His arrival was announced by a discharge of cannon from the forts and park of artillery.

"The enemy on the Niagara frontier, at fort George and York, very prudently tho't it best to clear out and hasten to the strong hold at Kingston, where the British forces are now chiefly concentrated. The Dragoons have also arrived at the Harbor, with the general. His army is expected in a day or two. Sailors and marines are, in considerable numbers, daily arriving."

LATE RUMOUR FROM ENGLAND.

Extract of a letter, dated
"New London, May 4.

"A flag has juct arrived from the enemy's blockading squadron, with a number of American gentlemen, passengers, from a Swedish ship from Halifax bound to N. London, from whom we learn, that the ship was ordered off, and on inquiry by the captain, whether she would permitted to go into any other port of the U. S. he was answered she would not. The passengers further inform, that just previous to their leaving Halifax, information had reached that place by a packet from England, by London papers to the 10th March, that a general armistice had taken place on the continent of Europe. But on the question being put to the passengers, whether Wellington had been defeated, the answer was no; he was on his march to Troyes."

[N. Y. Columbian.

The English papers received at Bermuda, contained the French accounts of military events to Feb. 23, including the battles of Nangis and Montereau, and official accounts from the Allies to Feb. 20, only.

The accounts of the French and the Allies, therefore, can only be contrasted to the 20th Feb. It appears that at the latter date Blucher had again collected a considerable army, and up to latest accounts, March 2d, had not been attacked. Reinforcements for the allies were hastening into France.

Several British officers, who broke their paroles in France, and had reached England, were sent back.

[Boston Palladium.

From the Boston Daily Advertiser, May 6.

A gentleman arrived in town on Thursday night from Eastport, which he left on Saturday last. He informs, that he had a Halifax paper of the 26th ult. which he left at Newburyport on Thursday for the editor of the Herald. He also informed that it mentioned the arrival at Halifax about the 23d ult of a packet from Falmouth, bringing London dates to the 20th March, which contained the British accounts of the battles between the allies and French, (the French account of which has been received) in which the allies acknowledge the loss of 40,000 men, killed, wounded and prisoners. He thinks the paper contained nothing respecting American affairs, or any thing else of importance.

He saw a gentleman at Eastport from St. John's, who informed him that a transport, with 500 troops on board, which sailed from that port for Halifax, had returned, having had a severe engagement with an American privateer, supposed to be the Fox of Portsmouth, for an hour and an half, when they separated by mutual consent. The engagement took place off Cape Sable, and the gentleman stated, that the transport lost from 60 to 70 killed.

From the Alexandria (Virg.) Gazette, May 7.

THE ARMISTICE.

We have been favored with the perusal of a letter from a gentleman of this town, dated from on board H. B. M. ship Albion, 74, off Tangiers, April 30, from which we learn:—That Adm. Cochrane had not then arrived on this station, tho' hourly expected: That Adm. Cockburn entertains no doubt of his being invested with powers to conclude an armistice, should he be disposed to do so: and is of opinion, that there is a prospect of an early peace between G. B. and the U. S. The despatch from our secretary of state to Adm. Cockburn, about 3 weeks since, did not in any way relate to an armistice—It was interesting only to the Danish Charge des Affaires, and to his government.

ADMIRAL COCHRANE'S PROCLAMATION.

By the Hon. Sir Alexander Cochrane, Knight of the Bath, &c. &c. &c.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS Admiral Sir John Borlase Warren, did, by virtue of the power and authority to him given, by his proclamation bearing date at Halifax the 16th day of November, 1813, declare, that not only the ports and harbours of the Chesapeake, Delaware, New-York, Charleston, Port Royal, Savannah, and the river Mississippi, in the United States of America, were and still continued in a state of blockade, and also that part of Long-Island Sound, being the sea coast lying within Montuck Point and the point of land opposite thereto, commonly called Black Point; together with all the ports, harbours, creeks and entrances of the North and East Rivers of New-York as well as all others, the ports, creeks and bays along the sea coast of Long Island and the state of N. York, and all the ports, harbours, rivers and creeks lying and being on the sea coast of the states of East and West Jersey, Pennsylvania, the lower countries on the Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, and all the entrances from the sea into the river Mississippi were blockaded: And whereas, since the institution of the said blockade, the enemy availing himself of the supplies which have been furnished by means of neutral communication to those ports and places of the said United States which were left open and unrestricted, hath already fitted out numerous vessels of war, and is now engaged in constructing and setting forth several ships of the line, as well as frigates and other armed vessels, for the purpose of prosecuting the war with Great-Britain, and frustrating the object of the said blockade:—

I do, therefore, by virtue of the power and authority in me vested, declare, in addition to the said ports and places blockaded as aforesaid, all the remaining ports, harbours, bays, creeks, rivers, inlets, outlets, islands and sea coasts of the said United States of America from the point of land commonly called Black Point to the northern and eastern boundaries between the said United States and the British province of New-Brunswick in America, to be in a state of strict and rigorous blockade. And I do further declare that I have stationed off the said ports and places, herein before mentioned, a naval force adequate to maintain the said blockade, in the most rigorous and effective manner. And I do hereby require the respective flag officers, captains, commanders and commanding officers of his majesty's ships and vessels employed and to be employed on the N. American station, and all others whom it may concern, to pay the strictest regard and attention to the execution of this proclamation. And I do caution and forbid the ships and vessels of all and every nation in peace and amity with the crown of Great-Britain, from entering or attempting to enter, or from coming out or attempting to come out of any of the said ports, harbours, bays, creeks, inlets, outlets, islands, and sea coasts, after due notification of the said blockade under any pretence whatever: And that no person may plead ignorance of this proclamation, I have caused the same to be published.

Given under my hand at Bermuda, the 25th day of April, 1814.

ALEXANDER COCHRANE.

To the respective Flag Officers, Captains, &c. &c. &c.

By command of the Vice Admiral,
WM. BALHETCHET, Sec'y.

PHILADELPHIA, MAY 6.

From the Albany Register.

Extract of a Letter from Maj. General Wilkinson, to his friend in Albany, dated

"CHAMPLAIN, April 9.

Dear Sir!

"You tell me I am "charged with the counter march of maj. gen. J. Brown, to Sackett's Harbor, after he had advanced near 200 miles thro' mud and mire on an expedition to Niagara—and you desire to know whether such be the fact?" It is just as true as that I commanded maj. gen. Hampton last campaign for a single minute; or that I had turned coward and become a drunkard after 30 years service; or, that I had not favored the attack of Kingston, until I found it impracticable; and finally, that I shrunk from the attack of Montreal when my means were competent to the enterprize. I confess to you, that after 4 or 5 years of remorseless persecution, during which period, my character has been mangled and lacerated throughout the nation, I reluctantly obtrude myself on the public to refute those modern slanders; and an additional motive to silence, under the loads of obloquy which have of late been heaped on me, has been the continued menaces vomited forth by certain public prints, whose sympathies happen to be in opposition to my welfare; of courts hanging over me for imputed offences, committed 6 months since: Subsequent to which, I have been so far honoured with the confidence of the executive, as to be continued in the administration of the most arduous, critical and confidential military command of the nation; and I have not to this day received, from the war department an intimation of any complaint against me.

"I have but one objection to indulge your desire—it is the vanity of attempting to check the current of prejudice; for I have experienced on former occasions, that the refutation of one calumny has produced a hundred others; nevertheless, as I may do it without giving just cause of offence to any one, I will remove your solicitude, by assuring you, that to this hour I am an utter stranger, but by common report, to major general Brown's march from Sackett's Harbour, to Niagara, or of his countermarch to the former place; nor have I any information concerning the specific objects of either movement: But, I must acknowledge, that on hearing of his march to the westward, and having ascertained that the enemy continued to strengthen his garrisons on Lake Ontario, with heavy reinforcements as late as the 17th ult. on which day upwards of 1000 men passed up by Hamilton on the St. Lawrence—In combination with other motives, equally important, I made the late incursion into Lower Canada to put the enemy in fear nearer home, and thus to effect a diversion in favor of maj. gen. B's operations, whether offensive or defensive; and if I am not deceived, by a concurrence of information, the movement has had the effect to draw the whole of the enemy's force in Lower Canada, to the vicinity of St. Johns, including a corps of Glengarians who were stationed on St. Lawrence, at Coteau de Lac.

"Before closing my letter, I will beg leave to remark, that, although, I have not interfered with maj. gen. B. since our separation at the French mills, I am certain that my legitimate right to controul any movement, within the district of my command, made by a subordinate officer, without my knowledge, will not be questioned by that gentleman or any other military man; because, should this right be taken away, the bounds of subordination and discipline will be dissolved: Concert—the soul of military operations, will be destroyed, and anarchy must ensue.

With much respect,
I am dear sir,
Your friend,
JA: WILKINSON."

Philadelphia, May 9.

The crew of the United States frigate "President," arrived in this city this morning, in several gun boats—They are intended to man the new frigate Guerrier.

ALBANY, May 2.

The court martial, which recently convened at Lake George, for the trial of Gen. Wilkinson, have dispersed, it not being such a court as Gen. W. was willing to be tried by. This objection of the General was a contingency which was no doubt expected, as the president of the court martial was in such case authorised to dissolve it.

PLATTSBURGH, April 20.

Gen. M'Comb has taken the command here, and, by his activity and judicious arrangements, has already inspired confidence. Signals have been established, by which to give notice night or day, the moment the enemy crosses the line.

ALEXANDRIA, (Va.) May 5.

It appears that the enemy in our waters, are making preparations for a considerable stay amongst us. They have taken possession of Watts and Tangier Islands, and have erected barracks, hospitals, &c. and made every other necessary arrangement.

FRANKFORT, (Ky.) May 7

From JACKSON'S Army.

OFFICIAL.

Camp, at the junction of Coosee, and Tallapoosee Rivers, April 18, 1814.

SIR—

I am happy to inform you, that the campaign is at length drawing to a prosperous close.

We have scoured the Coosee and Tallapoosee, and the intervening country.—A part of the enemy on the latter river made their escape across it just before our arrival, and are flying in consternation towards Pensacola. Many of those on the Coosee and the neighboring country, have come in and surrendered unconditionally; and others are on their way and hourly arriving, to submit the same way.

We will overtake those who have fled, and make them sensible there is no more safety in flight than in resistance. They must supplicate peace if they would enjoy it.

Many of the Negroes, taken at Fort Mimms, have been delivered up, and 1 white woman, (Polly Jones) with her 2 children. The Tallapoosee king has been arrested. The Tostahotchee king of the Hickory ground tribe has delivered himself up. Wetherford has been with me, and will be again in a few days. Peter M'Quin has been taken, but escaped. He must be taken again. Hillinhagee, their great Prophet, has also absconded; but he will be found. They were the instigators of the war, and such is their situation.

The advance of the eastern division, formed a junction with me at Hallawellee, on the 15th, and accompanied me to fort Decatur, and the balance will arrive in a few days. Maj. Gen. Pinckney will join the army at this place to-morrow or next day. The business of the campaign will not require that I or my troops should remain here much longer. Gen. Pinckney, and Col. Hawkins, who is now with me, have been appointed to make the treaty.

I am, sir,
Very respectfully,
Your most ob'dt sev't.
A. JACKSON, Maj. Cen.

His Excellency,
Gov. W. BLOUNT.

The following is a specimen of that bold eloquence which nature seldom bestows, and which still less seldom bursts forth from the uncultivated mind.

Wetherford the speaker, has been thro' this war, one of the most active & enterprising chiefs. Seeing that it was in vain any longer to resist, he voluntarily came in and delivered himself up; in a private interview, with gen. Jackson, he made the following short, though forcible & bold address, which was forwarded by a person who was present.

"I fought at fort Mimms; I fought the Georgia army; I did you all the injury I could, had I been supported as I was promised, I would have done you more. But my warriors are all killed; I can fight you no longer. I look back with sorrow that I have bro't destruction on my nation. I am in your power—— Do with me as you please. I am a soldier!"

Navy Agents Office, Savannah, May 2, 1814.

SIR—

I have the pleasure to inform you that the British sloop of war Epervier, Wales, late master, arrived last evening at Tybee, prize to the American sloop of war Peacock, capt. Warrington. She was taken after an action of 45 minutes, during which 8 of her men were killed, and several wounded, among whom is her first lieu. who lost a leg and arm.

The Peacock, had only 3 men wounded. She took from on board her prize $100,000 in specie. Lieut. Nicholson is prize officer.

Copy of a letter from Lieutenant Nicholson, prize officer, to the sec'y of the navy, dated Savannah, May 1, 1814.

SIR—

I have the honor to inform you, of my arrival here, in H. B. Majesty's late brig Epervier, of eighteen 22 pound carronades, capt. Wales, captured by the sloop Peacock, on Friday morning the 29th, off Cape Canaveral, after an action of 45 minutes, in which time she was much cut up in her hull, spars, rigging and sails, with upwards of 5 feet water in her hold, having the advantage of the weather gage.

She has lost 8 killed and 13 wounded, among the latter her first lieut. who has lost an arm. I am happy to say the Peacock received no material injury—her foreyard and 3 men wounded—she received not one shot in her hull.

The brig had upwards of $ 100,000 on board.

FROM THE LAKE.
THE NEW SHIP LAUNCHED.

Copy of a letter from Commodore Isaac Chauncey, to the secretary of the navy dated,

U. S. Ship General Pike, Sackett's Harbor, May 1, 1814.

SIR—

I am happy to have it in my power, to inform you, that the United States' ship "Superior," was launced this morning, without accident.

The Superior is an uncommon beautiful, well built ship, something larger than the frigate President, and could mount 64 guns, if it was thought advisable to put as many upon her.

This ship has been built in the short space of 80 days, and when it is taken into view, that 2 brigs of 500 tons each, have also been built, rigged and completely fitted for service since the 1st of Feb. it will be acknowledged that the mechanics employed on this station have done their duty.

I have the honor to be, &c.

secretary of the navy.

SAVANNAH, (Geo.) May 2.

Arrived at this port on Saturday, the fast sailing letter of marque schooner Midas, Thompson, commander, being the only American vessel left at Bordeaxx when the Grampus sailed.

Captain T. on his homeward passage took eight vessels and made 59 prisoners, among whom were 14 priests and 2 ladies. He sailed from Bordeaux on the 14th March, and has politely favored us with the following extracts from the letter of his consignee at Bordeaux, while he was lying in the roads.

"The Emperor is constantly fighting, first about Troyes and then towards Rheims: his presence is necessary every where, for the Allies are pressing hard upon him. The latest accounts from Paris are very gloomy.

"The British are only 3 or 4 leagues from this city. The prefect, custom house officers, &c. are off. A deputation is formed to wait on the English the moment they present themselves, and it is expected they will march in to-morrow."

Capt. T. further informs that before he got out of the river, Bordeaux was actually invested by the combined armies, and that no resistance was made.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

FRIDAY, MAY 20, 1814.

Saturday last arrived here from Philadelphia, three waggons freighted with sailors. They are intended for the fleet at Lake Erie, for which place they set out on Monday.

We are informed, that Col Fenton with the voluntoers and militia under his command, and Major Marlin with the regular troops stationed at Erie, are ordered to the Niagara frontier.

The St. Louis paper of the 9th ult. says, "We understand that our Rangers stationed on the frontiers, have lately discovered such signs of Indians as has deterred the farmers from pursuing their usual avocations."

We are happy to announce, that Gens. Winchester, Winder and Chandler have been exchanged; and that the President has appointed Gen. Winder, Adjutant and Inspector General of the army.

VINCENNES, April 30.

On Thursday the 19th instant, two men belonging to Captain Shoult's company of rangers, stationed at fort Harrison, were killed within 2 or 300 yards of the fort, and the Indians appeared in considerable numbers around it—the next day, however, they disappeared, and have not been seen since.

CHILLICOTHE, (O.) May 14.

Copy of a letter from the commandant at Fort Wayne, to the commandant at St. Mary's, received April 18th.

SIR—Last night I received the news by 2 Indians from Pecaw camp, Miami Indians, that a body of hostile Indians, about 800, had crossed the Wabash in the direction of Greenville, and the frontiers of Ohio, for the purpose of stealing horses, plundering and perhaps murdering the defenceless inhabitants.

The Miamies have promised me every information and co-operation in whatever shall take place. From circumstances and every thing that I can learn, those Indians at a distance from here are yet unfriendly, and ready to commence acts of violence. It will be well to keep a strict look out of your forts, let them be informed at Lorimies, and Amanda, and I think it would be well to send Mr. John Johnston, Indian agent a copy of this, so that the inhabitants may not be taken by surprise. If they should try us here, they will receive a bitter dose. We are fixing intrenchments and ready at any moment day or night.

J. JENKINSON, Major, Commanding.

COLUMBUS, (O.) May 7.
TREASON EXPOSED.

By a gentleman from Delaware, we are informed that Mr. R. E. Post, who has recently had charge of the Post Office at Lower Sandusky, was confined in irons at Delaware for holding illicit correspondence with the enemy. He stated that there was no doubt but the fact would be proven, as some of the letters he had received, together with copies of his own, were found in his trunk.

From Sir Robert Ker Porter's Narrative of the Campaign in Russia.

A party of French marauders entered the cottage of a poor peasant, in search of plunder and provisions, when they had seized every thing dead or alive, even to the very Cat, one of the brigands took the left hand of the honest Russian, and with a standing liquid marked on it the letter N. The Boor seeing the figure, demanded what it meant; upon which one of the soldiers, who was a Pole, replied, "It is the initial of the French Emperor, and by that mark you are become his subject." On hearing this the spirited Russian drew his axe from his sash, and laying his arm on the table, in an instant, and at one blow, left the disgraced hand, covered with blood, before the eyes of the astonished soldiery.—"There," cried he, "take what belongs to the French Emperor, if it is his!—But still my heart and my body be long to my own Sovereign, Alexander, and will ever serve him with honesty and fidelity!"

HAVE JUST RECEIVED A FRESH SUPPLY

OF

PAUL'S PATENT COLUMBIAN

OIL.

THIS valuable Medicine having been established upwards of three years, and its virtues sufficiently exemplified by the number of respecta e certificates repeatedly laid before th public, it therefore now only become necessary for the information of those w. may not have had an opportunity of per. sing the certificates, to detail a few of the cases wherein the Oil has been so wonderfully efficacious. Printed handbills containing certificates, may be always had, gratis, from the Agents, who will keep a constant supply of the Oil.

The following are the complaints in which the Columbian Oil has been found so efficacious, and rarely ever fails of effecting a cure, viz——Rheumatism, Consumption, Pains in any part of the body but particularly in the back and breast, Colds and Coughs, Tooth-ache, Spleen, Pleurisies, Cholic, Cramps, external and internal bruises, Sprains and Flesh Wounds, Scalds and Burns, Dysentery or Bloody Flux, Croup and the Summer Complaint in Children, and in weak stomach, that is caused by indigestion, a constant sinking and loss of appetite, it will act as a powerful bracer to the relaxed fibre and restore it to its proper tone, Whooping Cough and Mumps.

It seems as though nature ranked it the first of the class of all pectorals and expectorals for the relief of the breast and lungs, as it scarcely ever fails of removing obstruction in either, particularly those who are troubled with Phthisic and Asthmatic complaints, who in the act of walking fast, stoo- -y-s down are almost suffocated, half a teaspoonful of the Columbian Oil will render some relief instantaneously, and if continued agreeably to the directions in such cases, will prove a radical cure by producing the full power of inflation to the lungs and free expansion of the breast.

To the Public.—In order to prevent deception, the public are cautioned not to purchase any Oil that may be offered as "Paul's Patent Columbian Oil," that does not bear the true characteristics as published by my principal and sole agent Doctor John Love, of Baltimore.

THOMAS PAUL, Patentee.

DOCTOR HANDY'S,

WORM DESTROYING

LOZENGES,

A safe and efficacious Medicine for destroying and bringing away

WORMS.

MAY be used with safety by children of any age, or as common physic by the most delicate constitution, in any climate, without restraint of diet, or the smallest danger from cold. It may be given with advantage after the small-pox or measles; or as a family medicine, in any case where physic is necessary. The most frequent seat of worms in the human body, is the intestinal tube; but occasionally they have been found in almost every other part of the body.

Some very extraordinary cases of Worms, of an unusual form and appearance, being brought away by these Lozenges, have been made public in England, where the rapid sale of the medicine has exceeded any thing of the kind ever known before; and has also proved, to a demonstration, its approved superiority, as an athelminthick, to the numerous puffed-up, useless nostrums, which are daily advertised in the newspapers.

A single dose of this valuable Medicine has often been known to remove half a pot-full of the Teres or Round Worms.

A few doses are generally sufficient to remove the Ascarides, a small white worm, the seat of which is either the stomach or rectum.

Even the Tape Worm, at all times the most difficult to destroy, may, by persevering in the frequent use of this medicine, be totally removed in the course of a few weeks.

To select cases, with the names of people who are not known here, and living at a great distance, would be useless, and take up too much of the reader's time. We shall therefore only observe, for the benefit of those who are unacquainted with the symptoms of worms, that they are known or suspected to exist by a pain in the stomach, attended with a sudden depression of spirits before eating; at other times, the belly is hard, painful and distended with wind—costiveness, head-ache, and trembling of the limbs, with a sense of something rising in the throat—pale complexion and emaciated body, with weakness and irregular appetite—convulsive, epileptic, or falling fits—pains in the back and side, and frequent itching of the nose, and sometimes of the anus. The above, and a long train of afflicting diseases may all be occasioned by worms, which are much oftener the cause of death than is commonly believed.

The above valuable Medicine is sold only by

J. P. & J. W. SKELTON,

at their wholesale and retail Drug Store, at the corner of Wood and Third Streets, Pittsburgh.

Doctor CHISHOLM'S

Anti-Bilious Pills,

OF A QUALITY

Superior to any thing of the kind ever offered as a

GENERAL MEDICINE,

IN THIS COUNTRY,

Now prepared from a recipe of the celebrated Dr. Chisholm, who, from a long residence in the West-India islands, has been enabled to favor the world with the most complete history, and most approved methods of curing all the BILIOUS DISEASES of those warm climates

This extraordinary medicine, which now for the first time is finding its way into general practice, has properties in the highest degree superior to the mercurial nostrums so frequently recommended by the name of Anti-Bilious Pills. The extraordinary powers of this medicine as a solvent and evacuant of bile, is without example; never producing debility, or injuring the health, in the smallest degree, of the most delicate child, or weakly female.

The BILIOUS HEAD-ACHE, so much complained of in this country, and in the neighbourhood of rivers, is often removed by a single dose, which, to a strong man, is only five pills, and to a weakly woman, three. The same dose will generally remove the most excrutiating pains of the cholic, like a charm, by abusing the bile to pass downwards in the course of an hour or two.

Two or three Pills taken an hour before dinner, and repeated every third day, will effectually remove those diseases arising from flatulency and indigestion, and by persevering in the use of them for a considerable time, the appetite will be improved, and strength and vigor will return.

Two Pills taken at bed time, with a cup of penny-royal tea, and repeated every second night, will effectually remove Rheumatic pains, wherever seated.

A single Pill, taken every fourth hour with a cup of flax-seed tea, will cure Pleurisy, promote expectoration, and relieve coughs and colds.

In CONSUMPTIVE CASES and diseases of the liver, no medicine ever yet discovered, has been known to perform such cures. Two Pills, taken every third morning, will be found sufficient, unless costiveness prevails; in which case, the dose may be increased according to the strength or constitution.

The Dysentery, Croup, and Summer Complaint on children, are soon relieved by a few doses. A single Pill to a child of 6 years old, and the dose increased according to their strength and age.

In Asthmatic or Phthisical cases, where the laborious breathing and great oppression, with faintings, are fast sinking the patient to the brink of the grave, a few Pills, taking one every hour, with fennel or pepper-mint tea, will often enable the patient to walk about in a few hours.

The above valuable Medicine is Sold ONLY in Pittsburgh, by

J. P. & J. W. Skelton,
